

Outside Speaker/Guest Presenter Honorarium Methods & Procedures

As a Facilitator enhancing your course with an Outside Speaker or Organizer hosting a Guest Presenter, you have the authority to offer an honorarium of $100 or $200, respectively. This policy is to be exercised at your discretion. For example, you may choose to not offer this honorarium for various reasons: speaker is a public servant (e.g., city/government employee) or would be uncomfortable with this offer (you share a professional or personal relationship).

Higher fees may be considered by the Board on a case-by-case basis.

If this honorarium is offered, the speaker/presenter may respond in various ways:

1. Decline the offer: see Note below.
2. Donate the honorarium to our LLI Scholarship Fund, in which case form Speaker/Presenter Honorarium Transfer to LLI Scholarship Fund is to be filled out and returned to the LLI Office (deposit in Treasurer's mailbox).
3. Accept the honorarium, to be paid by check and mailed by the Business Office upon receipt and processing of the necessary paperwork.
 - a. Forward the attached W-9 to the speaker/presenter to be filled out, returned to you, then forwarded to the WCC-LLI Liaison. This form will be kept by the college for future reference.
 - b. On the event date, fill out the form LLI Honorary Outside Speaker/Guest Presenter Agreement with event and contact information. (Note: Remit Payment information must match that in the W-9). In the LLI Authorization area, print and sign your name (title is LLI Facilitator or LLI Organizer). The speaker/presenter is not required to sign this form. Forward this form to the WCC-LLI Liaison, who will coordinate with the college for payment processing.

Note:

- If you determine that no payment is to be offered or the offer is declined, please notify the CC Course Proposal Coordinator (by responding to the email sent with the document listed above).
- You may have questions about how to handle specific situations, such as inviting multiple outside speakers to a given course. Based on the speakers' participation and expertise, you may choose to offer each speaker $100 or have them share the allotted $100. This is at your discretion.

All questions should be directed to the CC Course Proposal Coordinator, who will interface with the appropriate source(s) and respond to you.

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the instructions for Part I, later. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN, later.

Note: If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1. Also see What Name and Number To Give the Requester for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Employer identification number

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
4. The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions for Part II, later.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Future developments. For the latest information about developments related to Form W-9 and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following.

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)

- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
 - Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
 - Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
 - Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
 - Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)
 - Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
 - Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
 - Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)
- Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding, later.
